

Agenda

- 0800 – 0845 Registration and Breakfast
EAA Chapter 1527 Westfield, IN Pancake Breakfast
- 0845 – 0900 Opening Remarks
Mark Poliak – Welcome
- 0900 – 1000 Weather Information and Using Pre-Flight Data for No-Go or Go Decisions
MSgt Britt King and SrA Ross Hoppus—Both Britt King and Ross Hoppus are full time members of the Indiana Air National Guard Weather unit at Stout Field. The IANG has participated in the Indianapolis Air Show as trusted forecasters for almost 10 years. Both of these airmen are Indianapolis natives and graduates of the USAF Weather School.
- 1000 – 1100 Airspace Protocol in Uncontrolled and Controlled Airports and Radio Communication
Denise Mason and Michael McCoy—Each has spent over 25 years in FAA service. Denise is the Assistant Air Traffic Manager at Indianapolis International Control Tower with past experience at South Bend, Champaign, Great Lakes Regional and temporary and full-time at Oshkosh as the Manager of Oshkosh Traffic Control Tower. Ms Mason is a private pilot. Michael started his career at Grissom and further time at Ft Wayne, Indianapolis Center and Indianapolis Control Tower. Mr. McCoy attended Purdue and taught classes at PU Aviation Technology Center. Both worked many high profile Indy aviation events and Super Bowl XLVI!
- 1100 – 1200 LSA Maintenance and Maintenance That Can Be Over-Used
Brian McCallen—Brian is a Light Sport Repairman with a maintenance rating (LSRM) for airplanes, weight-shift and powered parachutes since 2006. His business, Light Sport Repair Services, Inc. is located in Plymouth, IN and is a Rotax Independent Repair Center. Mr. McCallen is a Designated Airworthiness Representative (DAR) for PPC's, trikes and fixed-wing airplanes since 2002. He is a Sport Pilot in PPC and ASEL.
- 1200 Final Raffle and Closing Comments
Mark Poliak