

FREE Proficient Pilot Seminar - Prepared for Departure

Please join us for a very interesting, entertaining and yet challenging and practical safety seminar on the critical topic of being properly prepared for every takeoff. Rick, our speaker, will have excellent scenarios and real life stories to share. He'll also do his very best to apply it in a very practical way to all of us and our general aviation flying adventures. So, please bring family and friends, and let's learn more about being a safe, proficient aviator - always properly prepared for takeoff!

Directions: You are cordially invited to join us for this free event hosted and presented by Sweet Aviation at the terminal facility at the Smith Field Airport (KSMD) in Fort Wayne, Indiana.
