

When It Comes To Landings - There Ain't no 10!

This series of programs will focus on improving your knowledge and skill during the most critical phase of flight - Approach and Landing. FAA and NTSB Statistics verify that the vast majority of accidents and incidents occur in the approach and landing phase of flight. Learn about ways to avoid having your name published in one their reports (the fifteen minutes of fame that nobody wants)!

Directions: Event will be held at the administration Building at New Reichmond Regional Airport
