

Review airspace classification, controlled/uncontrolled airports and the FARs that apply.

This 3-hour FAA sponsored Safety Seminar uses advanced Power Point Presentations integrating photographs, animations, videos and Google Earth images to enhance the learning experience.

Directions: This FREE safety seminar will take place at the Stevens Point Municipal Airport (KSTE). For airport details go to www.airnav.com. The Stevens Point Municipal Airport is also offering a 10 cent (.10) per gallon fuel discount to all safety-minded pilots attending the refresher course. The discount is available upon arrival only and paid with cash or check.
