

POWERED BY AOPA

MAXIMUM FUN, MINIMUM COST: Flying Clubs & What They Can Mean to You

- Date/Time: Tuesday, November 22, 2016
6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
- Location: Appleton International Airport (KATW)
Airport Public Safety Building, Second Floor Conference Room
W6396 Columbia Drive | Appleton, WI 54914
- RSVP: Monday, November 21
Limited to the first 60 people who register online

Above the Airport Rescue and Fire Fighting Station, just west of the fuel farm.

Join AOPA's You Can Fly Ambassador Andy Miller for a FREE seminar highlighting the benefits of joining a flying club. Hosted by AOPA You Can Fly and Appleton International Airport, you'll learn how you can fly more, spend less, and have more fun in the process.

Interested in starting a club of your own? Andy will also present a short program designed to demystify that process as well.

Register now for this complimentary seminar, and learn how flying clubs work, how affordable it is, and the positive affect it can have on your flying!

RSVP BY November 21: aopa.org/161122/KATW