

Every Accident tells a story

If you fly airplanes then you need to know how easily a flight display discrepancy can lead to a aircraft accident.

Jurg Grossenbacher, from the Milwaukee FSDO, will take you a quick Wisconsin accident review however the main theme that we will discuss three accidents that occurred both; during a beautiful VFR day and one that occurred at night in Instrument flight conditions. We will discuss the accident and how easily that one item could be missed by a pilot. We will discuss:

- Pre-flight still matters
- Checklists still matter
- Final check while on runway (Heading on DG vs Runway Heading)
- Aeronautical Decision Making
