

Up Your Game to Stay Safe and Skilled

Flight Reviews vs FAA Flight Activities:

If you enjoy attending FAA Safety Seminars and Webinars with WINGS credits, you can make the most of your participation by adding Flight Activity credits. Combine 3 Flight Activities with 3 Ground credits and you've just replaced a Flight Review! Better yet, you will enjoy your time flying with your Certified Flight Instructors (CFI) adding to your skills and safety instead of letting your proficiency lapse. Two local CFIs want to hear from YOU on what you want from flight training and will share tips for using WINGS-In-Lieu-of-a-Flight-Review. Make recurrent training fun, easy, and a better value for you and your Instructor.
