

Pro Tips for Pilots

Are you a PRO at analyzing weather to comfortably fly a cross-country or are you rusty and stay close to home? If you are like many of us, uncomfortable making a Go/No-Go decision, this webinar is for you! If you are like many of us that are uncomfortable making a Go vs No Go Decision then this webinar is for you!

Elaine Kauh, Master CFI, Lead Safety Representative along with Lou Radecki, tenured CFI, Lead Safety Representative will brief us on today's weather products that are used to make that all important Go Vs No Go decision. They will help you come up with a weather checklist that makes sense to make good decisions before you go. We will discuss the options for you while enroute to your destination and when to cut short of the destination and fly to your alternate airport.

We will also leave time to answer many of the attendees questions at the end of the webinar.
