

Pro Tips for UAS- Recreational Flying Rules

All UAS operations fall under part 107, unless they don't. For those of us who fly Remote Controlled Aircraft Systems only for fun we can fly under the 49 USC 44809 exemption to part 107. Join us to learn how to legally fly outside of the part 107 rules. We also will help you be prepared to fly, interact with and teach others, safely.

Please register for this webinar at the link below and share with friends or family that might also be interested in attending. Pro Tips for UAS Registration Link
