

Lets Go Somewhere Fun

Spring is quickly approaching and many of our pilots can't wait to take their weekend explorations. One of the many questions that they have; Can we go there? What services are available at the destination? Does my aircraft fit the mission or should I rent another aircraft?

We will look at unique places to go in Wisconsin (and beyond!) however we cannot forget PART 91.103 the required Pre-Flight Action to include Performance parameters and the safety and aspects that a pilot must review of those new places.

The evening will be led by Kathy Ihde, Certified Flight Instructor and FAA Safety Representative. So come armed with your POH/performance charts and you will come away with a view of your aircraft's capabilities. Can your aircraft take you where you want to go?
