

A Real Life Occurrence

Have you ever declared an Emergency? Should you have declared an emergency? Why Not?

Declaring an emergency or PAN seems to be taboo among pilots. Declaration of PAN or Emergency is often not used due to pilot ego. Declaration of PAN or Emergency is often not used due to pilot ego. This seminar will discuss a real life scenario including the outcome and the use of the ASRS, NASA reporting system. Come learn what PAN means, how and why you should use it to help promote safety culture, and how human factors play into everything too!

Pilot Proficiency Center of the EAA Aviation Museum is located at the Wittmann Field, Oshkosh, on the East end of the EAA Museum Building. Enter the door the the left of the door labeled "Conference Center"
