

Winter in the North

Jurg Grossenbacher from the Milwaukee FAA, will discuss safety precautions that not only keep us safe in inclement weather but also that the season is one of the best for flying if you are prepared. This seminar is for the newly minted pilots and those pilots that have always avoided this flying season. We will talk about the dangers this cold season presents such as carburetor icing, structural icing, snow drifts just to name a few to keep us on our toes.

We will discuss;

1. Hartford Accident
2. Start Up Cautions
3. Winter Taxiing
4. Take-Off and Climb
5. Enroute Considerations
