

Transition to Multi Engine Gnd

Multi Engine Ground in a Relaxed Atmosphere:
Propeller Basics, Take Off and Landing considerations, Engine Failure Scenarios, Single Engine Flight Characteristics, Minimum
Controllable Airspeed Scenarios,

Directions: From Burnsville, 35W South, East on County Rd
70, South on Hamburg Ave to the Airport
22100 Hamburg Ave, Lakeville, MN 55044

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 10,150 AMTs earned an AMT Award last year. Will you, this year?

Sign up for the FAA's safety services at www.FAASafety.gov!

Event Details

Wed, Oct 10, 2012 - 7:00 pm

Lakeville Airport FBO

22100 Hamburg Ave

FBO (Main Office)

Lakeville, MN 55044

Contact: RANDY LEE SCHOEPHOERSTER

(952) 594-1184

randy@airtreknorth.com

Select #: GL1546437

Representative RANDY LEE

SCHOEPHOERSTER

The FAA Safety Team (FAASTeam) is committed to providing equal access to this meeting/event for all participants. If you need alternative formats or services because of a disability, please communicate your request as soon as possible with the person in the "Contact Information" area of the meeting/event notice. Note that two weeks is usually required to arrange services.