

FAASTeam presents:

Preparation is Key: Planning a Successful Cross Country Flight!

Bring whatever technology that you routinely fly with such as your phone, tablet, iPad, or good old-fashioned chart and E6B. Come prepared to participate in activities and challenges which highlight resources available to plan a successful and low-stress cross country flight. Topics include: weather, airport information, fuel planning, and performance charts. Prizes! Also, Cassandra Isackson, Director of MnDOT's Office of Aeronautics, will talk about the latest trends in supporting Minnesota airports. Don't miss this opportunity to speak with one of Minnesota's key aviation advocates!
