

Super Bowl LII TFR Briefing

Andrew Gold, FAA Air Traffic Special Operations, will cover the details of the TFR surrounding Super Bowl LII. Mr. Gold is one of the TFR authors and has the "inside" knowledge on how the TFR was constructed and the process which must be followed for those airmen who wish to operate within its boundaries.

If you are unable to attend in person, the seminar will be live broadcast via webinar. In order to log into the webinar, you must also register at: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/8849001909730711043>

This presentation is designed for pilots of general aviation aircraft, both manned and unmanned.

Directions: Proceed through the main entrance and follow the signage to the conference room.
