

'Where's the 'F' in Airspace?'

After the check ride, many pilots soon forget all the nuances of the National Airspace System. This presentation will explore the many facets of aeronautical charts. This seminar will review the various airspace classes plus lesser known features and a brief review of airspace outside the U.S. Presenter, Michigan Aeronautical Chart editor and Designated Pilot Examiner, Randy Coller

Directions: 2nd floor conference room, Flint Bishop Airport Terminal Building
