

Dead reckon'

In the day of GPS, EFB's and moving maps, the basic navigation skills for pilots gets rusty. New pilots will find this useful seminar in learning the basic navigation and flight planning.

Directions: Exit I-94 at State Street. Turn south and go to the first light. Turn right on Airport Drive and take it to the very end. The terminal building is next to the tower.
