PUSHING THE ENVELOPE: LESSONS FROM THE EDGE OF FLIGHT

- WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO COMPETE AT THE HIGHEST LEVELS OF AEROBATIC FLYING AND AIR RACING?
- WHAT CAN GENERAL AVIATION TEACH US ABOUT SAFETY, DISCIPLINE, AND THE FRIENDSHIPS THAT DEFINE A CAREER?

EVENT & SPEAKER INFORMATION

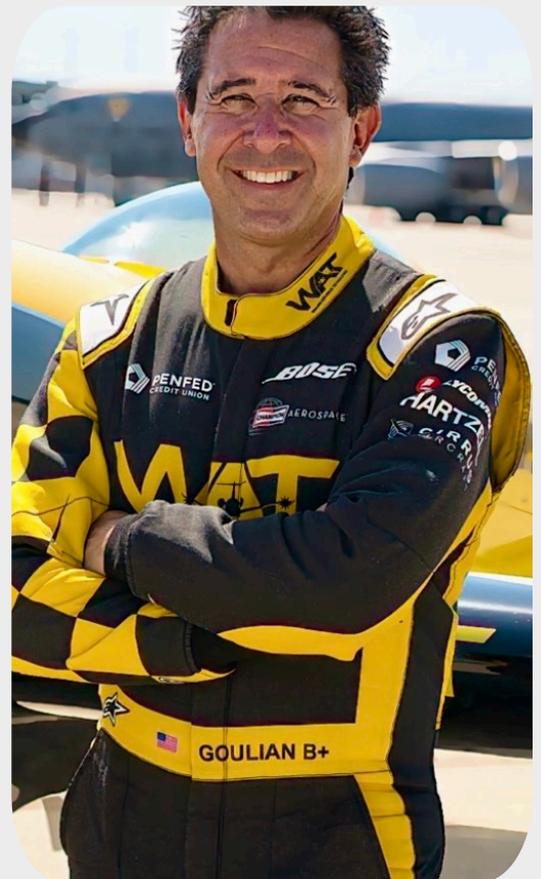

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Mike will share insights from four decades at the top of competitive aviation, covering:

- Pushing the Envelope: What drives a pilot to push the boundaries of aerobatic flight, and how calculated risk-taking translates to every pursuit worth doing.
- Being Safe: Why safety is non-negotiable in the cockpit, and the mindset and habits that have kept him flying for 40 years.
- The People of General Aviation: The extraordinary quality of the people in this community, and the lifelong friendships that make aviation more than a career.
- Stewardship: The responsibility every aviator carries to protect, promote, and pass on the tradition of general aviation to the next generation.
