

Cleveland TRACON Operation Raincheck

This event will include information on Cleveland Class Bravo airspace presented by Cleveland Air Traffic Control Tower (ATCT) personnel, laser events and reporting information presented by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) personnel, and icing and severe weather conditions presented by Cleveland National Weather Service personnel.

Depending on the number of attendees, there could possibly be a quick tour of the new Cleveland air traffic control tower and TRACON following the event.

Directions: For turn-by-turn directions, please use internet software such as MapQuest, GoogleMaps, Rand McNally, or similar.
