

Women in Aviation – Distinguished Lecture Series

Dr. Peggy Chabrian, founder and president of Women in Aviation, International, will discuss how she built this remarkable organization that has helped thousands of women (and men) succeed in the aviation industry.

This event will include a presentation on Aeronautical Decision Making; defining good judgment techniques, taking a look at the Poor Judgment Chain and how it relates to accidents, identifying the steps for good aeronautical decision making, and discussing the five hazardous attitudes and ways to overcome them.

Directions: For turn-by-turn directions, please use internet software such as GoogleMaps, MapQuest, Rand McNally, or similar. For additional information regarding this event, please visit "www.waicleveland.org" and Email your inquiries to "wai.cleveland@gmail.com".
