

FAASTeam presents:

Aviation Safety Day

Aviation Safety Day 2016 is an exciting day where pilots have an opportunity to meet industry professionals from the airlines, corporate flight departments, air traffic control, the military, aerobatic flight training, and safety managers. Come hear our speakers talk about their thrilling experiences flying and operating in a high-paced environment and what they do to guarantee the safety of aircraft and others. Six simultaneous talks every hour and a half, starting at 9:00, 10:30, 12:00, 1:30, and 3:00. Some door prizes and light refreshments will be available. Our Keynote speaker, Ken Ramsay, former Ohio ANG F-100 Super Sabre pilot will talk at 5:00 pm about "Checklists, Checklists, Checklists." in the Governance Chambers on the second floor of the student center. Additional prizes will be drawn from the tickets that were earned while listening to other speakers. This is a great opportunity to learn from other's experiences, to network, and is absolutely free! Can't wait to see you there!

Directions: Room 310 (Third Floor) from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm.
