

South Dakota FAASTeam presents:

2023 Tri-State Aerial Applicators Convention

Join us for the 2023 Annual Tri-State Aerial Applicators Convention in Deadwood, South Dakota. This traditional event has provided resources for many Part 137 Aerial Operators within the Tri-State areas of South Dakota, North Dakota, and Minnesota. This event will begin on Tuesday, February 14th and extend through Wednesday, February 15th.

This year's program will feature one of the largest trade shows in the nation for agricultural aviation professionals. Many pilots, owners, and operators enjoy the networking opportunities, along with a wide-range of speakers and events. This event takes great pride in promoting aviation safety which contributes to a positive safety culture.
