

Weekly in Person CFI - CFII Study Group

The Study Group meets every Monday at Rocky Mountain Flight School at BJC. This is an opportunity for pilots of all levels to practice their presentation skills. Pick a task from any ACS and present your lesson plan followed by a group discussion. This is an outstanding platform to refine your presentation skillset and prepare for a CFI checkride or your current and future students.

Study groups run from 1700 MDT to about 2000 MDT

Rocky Mountain Flight School at Rocky Mountain Metropolitan Airport (KBJC). Hosted in the simulator room. When you enter the front lobby follow the signs to the simulator room.
