

Top It Off - Three Words that Can Lead to Disaster

What sounds like a simple fuel request can become one of aviation's most preventable tragedies.

Join aviation professionals from Phillips 66 Aviation, the FAA Safety Team (FAASTeam), City Service Valcon, and Bighorn Airways for an engaging discussion focused on aviation fueling safety, communication, human factors, and accident prevention.

Featured speaker Keith Clark will present the nationally recognized Verify Fuel Type (VFT) program, sharing real-world misfueling incidents, lessons learned, and practical techniques that pilots and fuel handlers can use to
