

Fall Weather - Transition Time

Weather conditions change as the seasons change. Sarah Rogowski, a NOAA professional weather analyst, will examine the fall weather looking at it as a transition from the heat of summer to the cold of winter. Come and learn about the conditions to watch and prepare for before the autumn weather conditions arrive. Earn WINGS Advanced Knowledge credit for this informative seminar on weather conditions that you need to know about.

Directions: Enter airport grounds through the security gate then head northwest to Hanger 49. Call for security code if you need to.
