

The Perfect Cross Country Plan

As summer approaches many pilot are planning great summer cross countries. There are many considerations to look at when leaving our neck of the woods. During this seminar we will look at weather briefings, performance calculations, and good flight planning and cockpit organization. We will be planning a trip out together, so please bring your favorite flight planning tools!

Directions: This seminar will be located in the classroom, which is in the second floor of the FBO building.
