

FAASTeam presents:

WINGS Annual Proficiency Training (APT) Day

Keynote seminar - PTS Maneuvers on Your Checkride, presented by Mary Schu, Designated Pilot Examiner (DPE), at 1:00 pm. Focusing on the maneuvers required for pilot certification and proficiency, Mary will point out common weak areas and strategies for improvement. The session will cover aircraft performance and limitations, and loss of control.

FAA WINGS is a pilot-managed recurrent training program that provides a higher level proficiency than a flight review under FAR 61.56. The WINGS overview at 11:00 am will provide interactive role-playing scenarios showing how to establish a personalized program. Each participant will have the opportunity to enroll in WINGS and create or update an existing account. Three topics that complete the ground requirements for a Basic WINGS Phase will include: The Art of Aeronautical Decision Making, course #ALC-28, online at FAASafety.gov (complete before or after APT seminar) WINGS Overview, 11:00 am PTS Maneuvers on Your Checkride, 1:00 pm

Directions: Seminars will be held the central hangar at Nutsch Aviation.
