

Emergency and Abnormal Operations Review

When was the last time you had an opportunity review emergency procedures and abnormal operations? Matt Thurber will lead a discussion of relevant emergency procedures and abnormal operations with a focus on the prioritization of tasks that will allow you to achieve a successful outcome in a variety of scenarios. There will be an opportunity to practice emergency and abnormal situations in Cessna 172 flight simulators. Pilots at all levels are welcome to participate, and CFIs are welcome to bring students.

Turn into the Cascadia Academy Campus entrance and take the 1st right to the aviation bldg.
