

CFI Forum - The New Airman Certification Standards (ACS) and Pilot Training Focus Areas

This 2-hour meeting for CFIs, aviation educators, and those aspiring CFIs will take an initial look into the new Airman Certification Standards (ACS), an upcoming replacement to our current PTS. Discussions will reveal this new approach of integrating airman standards with the knowledge testing process while combining special emphasis areas and risk management concepts.

The second half will be an open discussion of focus items for pilot training and the checkride, interacting with FAA managers and local Designated Pilot Examiners.

Directions: Meeting will be in the main conference room, Executive Flight Center FBO at the MDQ airport. If driving, North Memorial Parkway to Meridianville, east on Meridianville Bottom Rd. then left on Bolling Rd.
