

BFC Safety Seminar

Flying at night presents a unique set of challenges that demand sharp skills, solid planning, and heightened situational awareness. This seminar will cover night vision limitations, aircraft lighting, spatial disorientation, illusions, and preflight planning specific to nighttime operations. Whether you're building night currency or preparing for a night cross-country, this session will help you stay safe and confident in the dark. Join us on December 18th from 1800 to 2000. Food and drinks will be available.

Drive-in: Birmingham Flight Center is located at 4255 East Lake Blvd. We currently share a parking lot with Southern Sky Aviation. We are the last door towards the flight line.

Fly-in: Birmingham Flight Center is located on the east side of hangar 35 on the Atlantic aviation ramp. We are the door by the parking lot.
