

Owner/Pilot Operator Maintenance Defined-New and Improved

During this briefing we will clarify exactly what preventative maintenance is and who can perform it. We will give you handy references and show you where to get them. Should you do a logbook entry when you perform preventative maintenance? Can you supervise someone else performing preventative maintenance?

Directions: All attendees - This event will be at the Hilton Head Flight School hangar owned by Ross Russo at 85 Summit Drive, Hilton Head, SC 29928
