

Topic of the Month--Tailwheel Transition and Getting Flight Review Credit through WINGS

Event Details

Welcome to the great debate! Tricycle or Tailwheel? That is the question! In this seminar we will take an unvarnished look at the pluses and minuses of flying a tailwheel airplane. Following that, we'll answer a question from last month's seminar: How do I get Flight Review credit using the WINGS program? For both topics, audience participation will be encouraged. A fun and educational time should be the end result, with the added benefit of safer flying and WINGS credit.

Note: This seminar is on Wednesday and replaces the normally scheduled seminar on Monday evening.
