

FAA Orlando FSDO & Safety Team presents:

Orlando Flight Standards District Office (FSDO) Inspection Authorization (IA) Refresher Course

Continual learning is a key component to aviation safety, your IA career, and for our profession. Our seminar meets the requirements of FAR 65.93 for FAA approved Inspection Authorization Renewal training, is accepted for the 8 hours of renewal IA training and is eligible for the FAA AMT Awards Program. It is scheduled from 7:30am until 5:00pm, this includes the signing in and lunch periods. Come join us for an informative and challenging seminar designed to increase your knowledge in all facets of the inspection process and help you become inspectors that are more informed.

IF YOU ARE DRIVING:

FROM I-4 take exit 25 and turn on south county line road, continue south for 4.2 miles to medulla road / old medulla road traffic signal. Turn left on medulla and drive 1.75 miles to the front gate at the sun 'n fun complex. You are now on Doolittle and should continue driving straight-ahead approximately .25 mile to sun 'n fun road. Turn left and drive approximately .20 mile to laird road and the FAA Aviation Safety Center will be straight ahead on your left. Make a left turn on Laird road and park in the parking lot to the west of the building – please do not park on the grassy areas.

From Highway 60 turn north on county line road, and continue 6.4 miles to medulla road/old medulla road traffic signal. Turn right on medulla and drive 1.75 miles to the front gate at the sun 'n fun complex. You are now on Doolittle and continue driving straight-ahead approximately .25 mile to sun 'n fun road. Turn left and drive approximately .20 mile to laird road and the FAA Aviation safety Center will be straight ahead on your left. Make a left turn on Laird road and park in the parking lot to the west of the building – please do not park on the grassy areas.

IF YOU ARE FLYING IN:

Upon arrival at Lakeland Linder Regional Airport, advise ground control you wish to taxi to the sun 'n fun complex and park at the FAA building. Once you have passed through the security gate, taxi left to the brown building marked FAASTeam National Resource Center known as the FAA Safety Center and now called the Orlando-FSDO Field

Office (OFO) and park in the grassy area to the north of the building. The taxiway must remain open for other aircraft.

To depart from the FAASTeam National Resource Center, contact one of our crewmembers and they will go out to open the gate so you can depart the sun 'n fun campus. Contact ground control before exiting the gate.
