

Orlando FSDO FAAS Team presents:

Flying the Complex Airspace of Florida - CRM for Safety - WINGS Help

Joel Hargis is an experienced pilot who frequently flies through some of the more difficult airspace of Florida. Come listen to his experiences and learn how to safely navigate through this complex airspace. Topics to be discussed are:
Navigating and communicating in, out and through Bravo Airspace.
Navigating and communicating in, out and through Restricted Airspace.
Navigating and communicating to fly over the NASA Space Shuttle Runway KTTS
Sarah Israel will provide hints and techniques for safe Cockpit Resource Management (CRM). She will be discussing how, and where to get the help available to the pilot in the cockpit.
Rock and Rich will discuss and answer questions on the Wings program and how it can benefit you as a pilot.
As always, attendee participation is welcome, and encouraged.

Directions: The meeting will be held in the Leesburg Airport Administration building is across the street from Sunair Aviation.
