

Jennifer Sasser

For over 23 years Jennifer Sasser has served as an educator in Polk County. She joins the Central Florida Aerospace Academy as the Director this year after holding a variety of instructional and leadership positions. She is dedicated to promoting career and technical opportunities for current and future students. She is a member of Women in Aviation International and Florida Association of School Based Administrators. She holds a Master's degree from Southeastern University and resides in Lakeland with her husband.