

Orlando FSDO FAA Safety Team presents:

Florida Aviation Network Presents SUN n FUN Aerospace EXPO 2023!

The Florida Aviation Network (FAN) will be broadcasting daily from the SUN 'n FUN campus. Scheduled interviews will occur at 9:30, 10:00, 11:00, 11:30, 12:30, 1:00, & 1:30. This popular aviation safety talk show will be recorded "Live".

Various guests will discuss all aspects of aviation; however, we plan to emphasize safety, careers, and the fun side of aviation. The Central Florida Aerospace Academy, located in the SUN 'n FUN complex, and additional educational facilities in Polk County, Florida have taken Aviation and the STEM program to a higher level.

Our remote crews will bring video and slide shows from the field so that you can be a part of SUN 'n FUN 2023, whether you are there or not!

Directions: There is no pre-registration required – Just go the Florida Aviation Network site: <https://www.floridaaviationnetwork.com/> and click on the Watch Live Programs link or the "Live Logo." Broadcasting begins 28 March 2023 at 0830, and runs through COB Sunday 2 April. See attached schedule of events and check the above website often for latest updates. WINGS and/or AMT Credit available for some, but not all, events. Creditable events will be identified and coded for any required audience response after each respective event.
