

Conducting A Flight Review from Either Seat

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) mandated Flight Review may be one of the most misunderstood activities. First, it's important to know the Flight Review is not a test. It's literally impossible to fail. There is no endorsement language to use to indicate a client was less than stellar in their performance. Second, it's possible to actually have a good time while conducting a flight review that meets the FAA requirements.

Whether you're the client in the left seat or the CFI in the right seat, the Flight Review is a fantastic opportunity to learn something of real value. In this hour-long presentation career CFI Jamie Beckett of the AOPA Foundation will share insights, experiences, FAA dictates, and best practices for any of us who participate in a flight review from either seat.

Each meeting is held in a classroom inside the Skyborne Airline Academy Vero Beach maintenance hangar, which is located just west of the Vero Beach Regional Airport Main Terminal Bldg. Enter through the west side of the hangar, meeting is in Classroom M. Plenty of parking for cars and aircraft. For those of you flying in, park by the C.J. Cannon's restaurant at main terminal and walk west 100 yards
