

Aeronautical Decision Making (ADM) Part 2 of 2

During this presentation we will continue to discuss Aeronautical Decision Making (ADM). The main goal is to review Aeronautical Decision Making (ADM) with emphasis on the ADM process, managing risk, and resources for the safe outcome of the flight. This will include hazard and risk identification and mitigation.

This seminar is part 2 of a 2-part series.

Flight Training Professionals is located at the Orlando Executive airport next to Atlantic Aviation.
