

The Engine is Running Rough----What Now?

This seminar is about recognizing in-flight partial engine failure following takeoff and applying Aeronautical Decision Making (ADM) principles in a timely manner to safely manage the risks and prevent a catastrophic accident. Additional Items for consideration:

- Aircraft control after partial engine failure
- Problem assessment
- Possible corrective actions
- Best practices

This will be followed with a discussion and questions/answers.

Event Details

Sat, Nov 7, 2026 at 10:00 EST

CIVIL AIR PATROL (CAP)
Composite Squadron 383
Headquarters Bldg.

10786 Craig Blvd, Jacksonville, FL
Jacksonville, FL

Contact: Bud Borne
(954) 553-1728

From the North: On I-95, proceed South to the exit leading to I-295 E. Beltway. Continue on I-295 to exit at Atlantic Blvd. and turn left (East), then proceed to St. Johns Bluff Rd. and turn left (North). Continue to Craig Blvd. and turn right (East) and proceed to parking in front of building at 10786. (no parking signs are not enforced, park off street, on grass); or continue on Craig Blvd. to take first left on Charles Lindbergh Dr. to park off street there.

From the North: On I-95, proceed South to the exit leading to I-295 E. Beltway. Continue on I-295 to exit at Atlantic Blvd. and turn left (East), then proceed to St. Johns Bluff Rd. and turn left (North). Continue to Craig Blvd. and turn right (East) and proceed to parking in front of building at 10786. (no parking signs are not enforced, park off street, on grass); or continue on Craig Blvd. to take first left on Charles Lindbergh Dr. to park off street there.

From the South: On I-95, Proceed North to Hwy 9B exit (North.) Proceed on 9B (North) which merges directly into I-295 E. Beltway. Continue on I-295 E. Beltway to exit at St. Johns Bluff Rd. (North). Continue to Craig Blvd. and turn right (East) and proceed to parking in front of building at 10786. (no parking signs are not enforced, park off street, on grass); or continue on Craig Blvd. to take first left on Charles Lindbergh Dr. to park off street there.

From the East: On Beach Blvd. or Atlantic Blvd., proceed to I-295 and turn Right (North). Continue on I-295 E. Beltway to exit at St. Johns Bluff Rd. (North). Continue to Craig Blvd. and turn right (East) and proceed to parking in front of building at 10786. (no parking signs are not enforced, park off street, on grass); or continue on Craig Blvd. to take first left on Charles Lindbergh Dr. to park off street there.

From the West: On I-10, Proceed East to I-95 North and continue to exit at W. Union St. Continue on W. Union St. that becomes E. Union St. and then connects to Arlington Expy (Hwy 115) and exits to Atlantic Blvd. Proceed on Atlantic Blvd to St. Johns Bluff Rd. and turn left (North). Continue to Craig Blvd. and turn right (East) and proceed to parking in front of building at 10786. (no parking signs are not enforced, park off street, on grass); or continue on Craig Blvd. to take first left on Charles Lindbergh Dr. to park off street there.