

South Florida FSDO 19, South Florida FAASTeam presents:

2015 Regional Aviation Safety Group – Pan America Aviation Safety Seminar

Regional Aviation Safety Group – Pan American and Nova Southeastern University are welcoming aviation professionals of all levels to the Third Annual Regional Aviation Safety Group – Pan America Aviation Safety Seminar. This event will focus on positive safety culture, high altitude risk management, runway excursions, mid-air collisions, controlled flight into terrain, pilot deviations, general aviation accidents and their causal factors, and finally the operation of an airworthy or a non-airworthy aircraft. There will be numerous guest speakers including speakers from the FAA, Embraer, ICAO, IATA, Embry Riddle, Florida Institute of Technology, and Florida Memorial University. Wings credit will be given to attendees of each seminar. Ensure that you sign in for each seminar to receive the credit.

Directions: Follow attached map to Nova Southeastern University, then proceed to the Carl De Santis Building. Once there the seminars will be held in the Knight Lecture Hall Auditorium 1124.
