

Game of Drones From Recreational Use to Part 107 Commercial Pilots

Drones are flying into the future and quickly changing the way we do business. But what does it take to cut through the red tape and use your drone commercially in the industry? Follow the journey of two Part 107 Remote Pilots in a Game of Drones that's full of challenges, ideas and learn what makes their Drone/UAS program work in today's market.

Directions: From the parking lot head to the reception desk for directions to the seminar room / west conference room.
