

What Pilots Need to Know About Aircraft Service Bulletins

This presentation acquaints the audience with the benefits of compliance with aircraft manufacturer's Service Bulletins and Service Instructions. We will go over examples of how Service Bulletins are developed in response to identified maintenance and manufacturing defect issues. We'll also delve into compliance and the intricacies involved in how to comply with aircraft Service Bulletins.

Directions: The FBO / flight school is located on the NE Corner of the Sarasota Airport.
