

Aeronautical Decision-Making

This will be a discussion of scenarios encountered at KSRO and other locations provided by our local pilot community and the tower personnel. The key points from the scenarios will be how simple decisions at the local level can have far reaching implications to other aircraft and aircraft operators. The best part of the presentation will be the dialogue between the operators of aircraft to and from Sarasota, both commercial and private, the problems they have encountered, and how we can operate together in a safer manner going forward.

From the north: Take I-75 South to Exit 213, University Parkway and head west on University Parkway. At the intersection of University Parkway and U.S. 41 (Tamiami Trail), turn south (left) on U.S. 41. Approximately 1000 feet to the south, on the left hand side of the road, is the former Barnacle Bill's Restaurant. The restaurant sign is still in place, but the restaurant has moved. The location is now the new home of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary and there should be ample parking.
