

Flying the New Mexico Backcountry

This presentation addresses typical safety concerns, and offers information on available resources for safely accessing back country recreational airstrips. The New Mexico Pilots Association (NMPA) promotes back country flying and strives to increase recreational flying opportunities in New Mexico.

Also included are highlights of work resulting from the New Mexico Airstrip Network (NMAN), a partnership including the Recreational Aviation Foundation (RAF), USFS, BLM, NMDOT Aviation Division, NM Council of Outfitters and Guides, NM Economic Development, NM Tourism, and other state agencies and national aviation organizations including AOPA, EAA, and USPA.

8:30 - 9:30 AM Double Eagle II Airport (KAEG). Follow signs to the "Pilot Oasis" in a T-hangar towards the runway from the Bode FBO. Seminar and Pilot Oasis are in the hangar directly behind EAA Chapter 179's Reimer hangar.
