

WINGS Winter Safety Seminar and Ozark Recreational Flying Opportunities

Lunch will be provided by Summit Aviation at 1200. Seminar begins at 1pm, which includes a discussion regarding loss of control, dealing with inflight ice, recent changes to weather reports and weather services available to Pilots. We will have a short break then Chad Cox will discuss recreational flying opportunities in the Ozarks. Additionally, Nick Cusimano from the LIT FSDO will be available to complete any administrative (non-flight activities) CFI renewals, Ground Instructor certificates or other Certificate needs.

Directions: We'll meet in the maintenance hangar on the east side ramp next to the FBO.
