

Aviation and First Responders

We will discuss aviation accidents and the role of first responder's assisting at an accident, such as, who needs to be notified and when the aircraft can be moved. Learn the special considerations concerning approaching an aviation accident and the many precautions that must be taken. We will also discuss the airport environment and have a segment on how to administer first aid.

Directions: At Paragould Airport (KPGR), in the large hangar with the doors facing the runway.
