

Monthly Safety Meeting

Winter weather often presents difficult flying conditions which require extra planning and preparation. As the seasons change, so should our approach to flight. To make sure we and our aircraft are equipped for colder temps and winter precipitation, H.-P. Schuele will present a program on how to best prepare for winter flying. H.-P. is a retired German Air Force fighter pilot, an FAA Safety Team Representative of the Year, and currently an ATP, CFII, and USAF Flight Simulator Instructor and Branch Chief. Wings credit will be awarded to attendees.
