

Aviation Weather-Planning Tools Made Simple

Randy Richison, Wing Leader of Angel flight's South Central Wing will share with us the joys of volunteering yourself as an Angel Flight Pilot. Ken Carson, Director of the University of Oklahoma Aviation Department will draw from his 30 years experience, and training, as an Air Force Commander, collaborative researcher of NEXRAD doppler radar, weather reconnaissance, and global airlift pilot. Ken leads one of the premier university aviation programs in the country.
