

Chickasha Safety Meeting

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), in coordination with industry, focuses on a specific safety topics each month by publishing free, safety-related articles, materials, and public presentations. To foster a stronger and more unified safety culture, the FAA and industry partners are encouraged to use their outreach channels to promote and distribute these materials to the general aviation community to help mitigate known safety risks. The December Topic of the Month will be: Flight Data Monitoring.

Directions: We will set up chairs in the terminal building and present a safety topic. Park in the concrete parking lot East of the Green terminal building between the two large WW2 hangars.
