San Antonio FAASTeam presents:

EAA Chapter 35 VMC Club

You are flying at night and experience electrical problems. What would you do to troubleshoot this? What would be your next move? We will also present IMC content relevant to all pilots and especially those interested in instrument procedures.

EAA Chapter 35 VMC and IMC clubs are open to ALL interested pilots and aviators of all experience levels. This is an interactive group discussion of a specific scenario and of general safety and learning points led by experienced CFI's. Fly in or Drive in - Everyone is welcome!

If able, you are invited to stay for lunch and topical presentation with EAA Chapter 35 to follow.

Flying In: 8T8. CTAF 122.9. Please park to the North of the EAA Chapter 35 clubhouse (the northernmost building)
